

RICH WOOD NEWS

Richwood, Jan. 1.—(W. L. C. Moore) Christmas day was a happy and prosperous year for all of us.

G. P. Brannan was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pugh Wednesday evening.

Capt. Nollie Lewis of the U. S. Army, and wife, are spending the holidays with his father, J. L. Lewis. Capt. Lewis has been in Europe for the past two years. His wife, formerly Miss Theresa Riden, has been living with her parents in Orlando, Florida. When Capt. Lewis receives his discharge, they expect to make their home in Florida.

Carter Martin is among the lucky ones to get his wild turkey. It graced the dinner table at a family reunion Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carter Martin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Pierce and daughter, of Farmville, Rev. T. T. Woodbridge and daughter, of Farmville, and Mr. and Mrs. Esmund Pugh Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Fleishman and family were guests of G. P. Brannan Sunday evening.

Mrs. T. T. Woodbridge and daughter, of Farmville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Esmund Pugh Thursday.

Fred Woodbridge's family has been sick with the flu, but we are glad to report an improvement.

Miss Elvira Harvey spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harvey.

THE LAST DAY

FOR MEN NOW IN THE ARMY TO RETAIN THEIR PRESENT GRADES BY REENLISTING...

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW ENLISTMENT PROGRAM

1. Enlistments for 15, 2 or 3 years. (3-year enlistments permitted for men in Army with 6 months' service.)
2. Enlistment ages from 17 to 34 years inclusive, except for men now in Army, who may reenlist at any age.
3. Men reenlisting receive present grades, if they reenlist within 30 days after discharge and before February 1, 1946.
4. The best pay scale, medical care, food, quarters and clothing in Army history.
5. An increase in the enlistment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service.
6. Up to 30 days' paid furlough, depending on length of service, with furlough travel paid to home and return, for men now in Army who enlist.
7. A 30-day furlough every year at full pay.
8. Mastering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
9. Option to retire at half pay for life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
10. Benefits under the GI Bill of Rights.
11. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents of men who enlist before July 1, 1946.
12. Opportunity to learn one or more of 200 skills and trades.
13. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater in the Air, Ground or Service Forces on 3-year enlistments.

There are plenty of other reasons why many thousands of men have enlisted, and more thousands are enlisting every day. You'll certainly want to know all of the opportunities open to you. If you'll read them carefully, you'll know why a job in the new peacetime Regular Army is being regarded today as "The Best Job in the World."

Hixburg

Hixburg, Dec. 31.—The weather for Christmas was very bad, with snow, sleet and rain. Traveling was dangerous and people did not go as much as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Sears had a happy reunion. Their three sons, Robert, Jim and Lester, who have recently returned from overseas service, were at home for the holidays.

Miss Lavallette Sears was at home for several days during Christmas week. She has been sick since returning to Richmond. Her brother, Lester, went down to see her Sunday.
